

TO MEDIATE

IN THE MATTER OF

AND IN THE MATTER OF the mediation between the above parties with Susan N. Peel, LL.B.

The Parties have agreed to this mediation in order to seek to reach a consensual settlement of issues arising from their separation without resort to litigation processes. In order to achieve this objective, the Parties agree to be frank and open with each other and the Mediator, making full disclosure of relevant facts and documents.

The Mediator will act as a neutral facilitator. She will also provide evaluation if requested by counsel.

The parties have been advised to retain their own lawyer and agree that they will obtain legal advice regarding their legal interests, rights and obligations by their own counsel. The mediator will not act as legal counsel or provide legal advice.

It is agreed all communications, whether oral or in writing, taking place during the mediation or in preparation for the mediation, are for the purpose of reaching a settlement and therefore are privileged and without prejudice and will be treated as absolutely confidential.

The fees of the Mediator are $300 per hour. Time spent preparing is billed. All payments shall be made to Susan Peel.

The parties agree that the mediator will not be called as a witness in any legal or administrative proceeding concerning this dispute.

The Mediator shall not be liable for anything done or omitted with respect to the mediation.
